ICT Authority Announces Leadership Transition

Nairobi, Kenya – July 1, 2025

The Board of Directors of the Information and Communication Technology Authority (ICTA) wishes to announce that Mr. Stanley Kamanguya, the current Chief Executive Officer, has proceeded on terminal leave with immediate effect.

This decision was arrived at during a Board meeting held today.

In the interim, Mrs. Zilpher Owiti has been appointed to serve as the Acting Chief Executive Officer of the Authority pending the advertisement and competitive recruitment of a substantive Chief Executive Officer.

The Board remains committed to ensuring a seamless transition and to maintaining the stability and performance of the Authority as it continues to deliver on its critical mandate in Kenya's digital transformation journey.
